WEDNESDAY EVENING APRIL 26 1893.

BATH OF FIERY METAL.-Mike Durdock had a fiery bath in the Pottstown, Pa., Iron Company's furnace yesterday. He was hauling a carload of molten slag from the furnace to dump it outside, when the car lurched, and the liquid metal poured over his back. The fiery streams burned furrows down the screaming man's body, and he ran back into the building for help. His clothing was all ab aze-a veritable human torch. His companions threw coats around his body to smother the flames, and turned a stream of water upon him. Durdock begged the men to kill him, so fearful were his agonies. He was carried home, and the doctor found that great strips on his back and down his legs were roasted to a crisp. The man's condition is critical.

IN A TRANCE OF DEATH,-At Peabody, Mass., the fourteen-year-old daughter of John Russell has been sleeping for six days and shows no signs of waking. She has been lying on the bed day after day in the same position, suffering no pain, and with every appearance of natural sleep. Her temperature has been a little higher than normal at times, but when last taken was only normal. The doctors say that her finger could be cut off without giving her any pain. Nour-ishment is given her and she swallows the food which is put into her mouth. The cause of the long sleep is thought to be a low form of meningitis.

The Trouble Over.

Her case balled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Facon's Celery Cure she is almost entirely well."
